PRAYERS IN NIBLOS GARDEN.

TWO HUNDRED PEOPLE PROFESS CON-

VERSION. A LARGE CROWD GATHERS FOR THE AFTER-

NOON MEETING-PERSUASIVE ADDRESSES AND HYMNS OF PRAISE-SERVICES IN MANY PARTS OF THE CITY.

The Rev. Dr. John R. Davies presided at the noon evangelistic meeting in Association Hail. Mr. Schiverea spoke, and the Rev. Dr. Patterson offered prayer. Clark Willson led the after-meeting. When the doors of Niblo's Garden were thrown bpen in the afternoon, one of the largest audiences that has ever filled that old playhouse poured in. After a song service led by George C. Stebbins, the Park isters, cornetists, played, and then the Rev. tharies W. Millard, who presided, offered the opening prayer. "Showers of Blessings" was sung, and rayers were offered by the Rev. S. V. Robinson nd the Rev. Mr. Alman.

Then the Rev. Dr. D. J. Burrell spoke. He said, mong other things: "Salvation is as free as Niblo's larden is to-day. The Lord does not discriminate between men in purple and men in rags. The millionaire is the most neglected class of men in New-York. The Lord is no respecter of persons; He loves and seeks after you all. This is the hour He speaks. We but begin to live when we die, and we ought to have an appetite for glorious truths. As the hart panteth after the brook so does man long for spiritual comfort." The speaker said that Jesus's hand was outstretched to erring numanity. When a man accepted the hand he was saved. Miss Unbam then sang "Come Over the Line," and the Park sisters trio, composed of Miss Ada, Miss Georgie and Miss Anna Park, played on the cornel. between men in purple and men in rags. The mill-and the Park sisters trio, composed of Miss Ada, Miss Georgie and Miss Anna Park, played on the cornel.

The Rev. Mr. Wharton said, referring to the chilly atmosphere in Niblo's Garden: "This is like an open-air meeting, and if Mr. Niblo does not make it any warmer for the players than this I would not work for him for $150 a week." Mr. Wharton related a number of instances in his personal observation. "The reason some people can't get true religion." said he, "is that they don't give themselves up entirely. God makes no compromise with the devil; He wants all your love. Stand up and don't be afraid to say you have accepted Jesus." Mr. Wharton indorsed plan for a New-York Christian Press Club.

The converts vesterday were many, about 200 rising in Niblo's Garden to signify their accentance of Christ. A service will be held in Niblo's Garden at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Wilsons are to give a sacred concert to-night at the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church, One-hundred-and-eleventh-st., of which the Rev. Dr. J. L. Campbell is pastor, They always have crowded houses, and expect to have one to-night. Leonard Weaver is at the Washington Heights Pressbyterlan Church this week, One-hundred-and-fifty-fifth-st., and Amsterdam-ave., the Rev. Dr. Bliss, pastor, five churches uniting—the Protestant Episcopal, Mrs. Kress will sing to-morrow, Thursday and Friday.

PART OF THE OLD GOELET ESTATE SOLD.

Street Cleaning Commissioner Andrews has at found time to advertise for proposals for the ast found time to advertise for proposals for the contract for carrying the street refuse to Riker's leiend and dumping it inside the cribwork there. This is the work that Andrews's favored contractor, John D. Dailey, has been doing on a verbal agreement with Andrews at 12 cents a cubic yard, almost with Andrews at 12 cents a cubic yard, almost with Andrews at 12 cents a cubic yard, almost with Andrews at 12 cents a cubic yard, almost with the contract of th ment with Andrews at 12 cents a cubic yard, although other contractors offered to do the work for 8 and 10 cents. It is estimated that there will be 1.990,000 cubic yards of street collections to carry to Riker's Island in a year. It will probably be found at the end of the year that the city has to pay for transporting a much larger quantity, if Isldey gets the contracts—enough probably to use up what has not already been expended of the $40,000 appropriated by the Board of Estimate for "final disposition of material" in 1894.

The bids are to be opened April 6, and the contract will begin to run April 17. The successful bidder must give a bond in $25,000.

THE GENERAL MARKET REPORT.

New-York, March 26, 1894.

COTTON—The market opened very close to Thursday's closing prices. The swing of prices during the day was within a narrow range, the extremes showing a difference of about 5 points. The absence of market advices from Liverpool, owing to the holiday there, had a tendency operent netter dealing here. The local brokers did not not the business of the day with MILLION DOLLARS FOR MORE PROPERTY

ALONG THE RIVER FRONT.

The principal feature in the real estate market yesterday was the sale of a portion of the old Goelet estate. The property consisted of a bulkhead, No. 4, at Morris-st, and the North River, now occupied by the Pennsylvania Railroad as lessees. The size is 136x240x416. The sale was made in pursuance of a suit brought by the Pennsylvania Railroad against Hannah G. Gerry, sister of Peter Goelet, for 1. partition of the interest in the property. This water-front was purchased by Peter Goelet in 1843, and it was sold yesterday subject to rights of the city and State of New-York, also of the United States.

Louis Mesier was the auctioneer. The bidding was between E. A. Crulkshank, on behalf of the Goelet estate, and Benjamin W. Carskaddon, the agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad do gent of the Pennsylvania Railroad do gent of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the gent of the property was knocked down to the railroad for the gent of the property was knocked down to the railroad for t
